

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO

FAMILY LAW ONLINE SERVICES INFORMATION

This document includes information about the different online services available for Family Law matters.

E-FILING

Attorneys and self-represented litigants may file documents electronically in Family Law and Family Support Division cases. Some exceptions apply. Refer to Electronic Filing Requirements (Family) (SDSC Form #D-305) available on the court's website at www.sdcourt.ca.gov for additional information, and the current list of documents not accepted for e-filing.

REQUEST FOR DOMESTIC VIOLENCE RESTRAINING ORDER

Pursuant to Family Code section 6307, requests for Domestic Violence Restraining Orders may be submitted electronically through one of the court's approved e-filing service providers (EFSPs), with exceptions for specific documents. Refer to Electronic Filing Requirements (Family) (SDSC Form #D-305) available on the court's website at www.sdcourt.ca.gov for additional information, and the current list of documents not accepted for e-filing.

GUIDE AND FILE

Tyler Technologies offers the "Guide and File" online service that provides user-friendly forms preparation. Required forms can be prepared online by answering a series of interview questions. Options to either print the forms or to e-file are offered at the completion of the interview. Visit the court's website at www.sdcourt.ca.gov for additional information.

FAMILY LAW FORMS

Access to the most current fillable Family Law Judicial Council forms, local forms and various Family Law form packets can be found on the court's website at www.sdcourt.ca.gov.

OBTAINING COPIES OF RECORDS

Copies of public records can be obtained in person, by mail, or online. For additional information regarding restrictions, fees, access to records, or to request copies through the online Register of Actions (Family) visit the court's website at www.sdcourt.ca.gov.

FAMILY LAW FACILITATOR'S OFFICE (FLF)

Court attorneys and paralegals experienced in family law are available at no cost to help self-represented parties who have questions about family law issues. Visit the court's website at www.sdcourt.ca.gov for information about specific services provided by FLF, including hours of operation and locations.

HOW TO APPEAR FOR YOUR HEARING

- To Appear In-Person:
Arrive at the courthouse at least 30 minutes before your scheduled hearing and report directly to the assigned courtroom.
- To Appear Remotely:
Parties can attend the hearing by video or audio conference using the free Microsoft Teams App, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

Visit the Family Law Hearings page on the court's website at www.sdcourt.ca.gov for additional information.

COURT CALENDAR

The San Diego Superior Court Calendar is updated daily and may be viewed on the court's website. For information regarding what is on calendar by case type visit the Court Calendar page on the court's website at www.sdcourt.ca.gov for additional information.

INTERPRETER

If an interpreter is needed for a hearing, or if an interpreter was scheduled and is no longer needed, an Interpreter Request/Cancellation Form (SDSC Form #ADM-348) must be submitted. Visit the Language Access page on the court's website at www.sdcourt.ca.gov for additional information.
